

What is/give examples for:

- Assault and Battery
- Off-line medical control
- False imprisonment
- Advanced Directives
- Proximate cause
- Liability
- Abandonment
- Breach of Duty
- Malfeasance
- Misfeasance
- Nonfeasance
- Benefeasance
- Autonomy
- Negligence
- Tiered response system
- Impartiality test
- Ethics
- Morals
- Advanced Directives
- Implied consent
- Informed consent
- Expressed consent
- Involuntary consent
- Duty to act
- Confidentiality
- Ethical relativism
- Invasion of privacy
- Borrowed servant doctrine (how might you be found liable for someone else's negligence)
- Capacity vs competency
- 4 Ts of emergency care
- Criminal Law vs Civil Law (Tort law)
- Due regard
- Advantage of air medical transport
- Emergency Doctrine
- Tertiary care facility
- Bioethics
- Duty to act
- Living will (Advanced Directives)
- Mandatory reporting requirements
- Defamation (Slander vs. Libel)
- Justice

- What is important to document for a Patient refusal?
- Where do the majority of ambulance accidents occur?
- When can a patient withdraw consent?
- When can you disclose a patient's medical information?
- What are the 2 components of "due process"?
- What are the 4 types of child abuse?
- In Canada (not Nova Scotia specifically), what is the age of consent?
- MAID stands for Medical Assistance in Dying
- DNR or Do Not Resuscitate form is only in effect during respiratory or cardiac arrest, when doubt or uncertainty safest course of action is to resuscitate
- Specific question on the test about whether an advanced directive is in effect if the patient is pregnant- test answer is false (it's void if she is pregnant- this is true in the US, not anymore in Canadian Law)

This test has 89 questions!